Energy Distribution Partners Mourns the Passing of Co-Founder Marlo Young

Energy Distribution Partners (EDP) today announced that its co-founder and chief operating officer, Marlo Young, recently passed away unexpectedly.

Mr. Young was a long-time propane industry leader, as well as a key member of EDP's team since its founding in 2012. He had extensive experience in the energy sector and previously served in operating and executive roles with Ferrellgas, Cornerstone Propane and Inergy Propane.

"Marlo Young touched so many lives, including those of our EDP family members and others throughout the industry. He was recognized throughout the propane business for his wise counsel and positive leadership. At EDP, Marlo helped build a dedicated, resilient team of highly capable executives and managers. We are greatly saddened to lose our friend and colleague, and we offer our deepest sympathy to his family," said Tom Knauff, CEO of Energy Distribution Partners.

Former colleagues are encouraged to make a contribution in Mr. Young's memory to the National Propane Gas Association (NPGA) Scholarship Fund at the following address: NPG Foundation, National Propane Gas Association, 1899 L Street NW – Suite 350, Washington, D.C. 20036
