

For Immediate Release
Chicago, Illinois
September 19, 2022

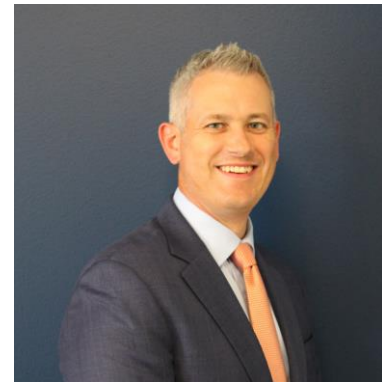

CONTACT:
Gena Vasbinder
312.254.5962

John Casper Joins Energy Distribution Partners as CFO

Chicago, Illinois-based Energy Distribution Partners (“EDP”) announced that John Casper has joined the Company as Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. Casper comes to EDP with extensive financial leadership experience. He most recently served as Chief Financial Officer of a Chicago-based toll road concession company where he led the financial planning, reporting, treasury and compliance functions including oversight for the company’s capital structure. Prior to that he was Corporate Controller for a real estate holding company where he led the financial reporting and consolidation function for the company’s owned and managed parking asset portfolio, consisting of more than 100 locations.

Mr. Casper started his career at PricewaterhouseCoopers in the financial statement audit practice after receiving both his Bachelor of Science in Business and Master of Accountancy from Miami University. He is a Certified Public Accountant.

According to Tom Knauff, EDP’s Chief Executive Officer, “We are extremely pleased to have John join our leadership team. He is a seasoned financial executive who is well-equipped to help us efficiently and effectively continue to grow EDP’s business. We are confident John will play a valuable role as we further expand EDP’s footprint from coast to coast.”

About Energy Distribution Partners

Energy Distribution Partners (EDP) is a rapidly growing company with deep experience in retail and commercial propane sales, operations and finance. EDP provides safe, reliable propane service to residential, commercial, industrial, and agricultural customers in 16 states, with a presence in rural America as well as in major metropolitan areas. EDP has become a significant player in the propane industry and is recognized as one of the largest independent multi-state marketers. Since its inception in 2012, EDP has helped more than 30 owners of well-run propane businesses transition to their own “next chapter” while benefiting everyone involved.

EDP is actively seeking partners for growth. For more information, please visit www.edplp.net.

###